Aventure Named Among Fastest-Growing Private US Companies Second Year in a Row

Aventure has been designated one of America's fastest-growing private companies for the second year in a row by Inc. Magazine. Aventure will accept this honor at the Inc. 500/5000 awards ceremony on October 3, 2012, at the JW Marriott Desert Ridge Resort & Spa in Phoenix, Arizona.

"We are proud to have been given this distinction for a second year, which is a testament to the efforts of our dedicated team, and significant growth the past few years," said Zaheer Faruqi, Aventure's President.

The prestigious Inc. 500/5000 list recognizes the creativity, dedication, and hard work that entrepreneurs put into building and running their companies. The elite group has over the years included companies such as Microsoft, Timberland, Vizio, and Oracle.

Aventure Aviation to Exhibit at ACPC in Las Vegas

Aventure will exhibit at the 2012 Air Carriers Purchasing Conference (ACPC), held on August 18-21 in Las Vegas.

ACPC brings together buyers and sellers of aviation related goods and services. The biannual show attracted over 20,000 trade visitors in 2010.

"We look forward to strengthening relationships with our airline customers and suppliers, and sharing our growth plans and recruitment drive with them," said Melissa Coleman-Grina, Aventure's Senior Director of Sales and a 14 year ACPC show veteran.

"Our past experience at ACPC has proven successful in growing our business and we plan to continue that tradition in 2012," added Jordan Yohr, Aventure's Accounts Manager of Commercial Sales.

OEM Lighting Products Now Offered by Aventure

Aventure recently announced a distributorship arrangement with Chicago Miniature Lighting (CML) Innovative Technologies Ltd. The UK-based company is a leading original equipment manufacturer (OEM) of aviation lamps.

"This opportunity broadens our product line in support of our airline and MRO customers worldwide," commented Melissa Coleman-Grina, Aventure's Senior Director of Sales.

CML provides lighting applications for a wide range of industries, and is one of the largest global manufacturers of miniature lighting systems and components for aircraft. CML's top-rated and cost-efficient applications include status indicators, as well as lighting for instrumentation, cabins and flight decks, inspection, anti-collision and navigation. For more information please contact Ms. Coleman-Grina at 678-860-6903.

This Month in aviation History

August 19, 1871

Orville Wright, co-inventor of the airplane, is born in Dayton, Ohio, USA.

August 25, 1932

Amelia Earhart becomes the first woman to fly non-stop across the United States. She pilots a Lockheed Vega.

Quote of the Month

"The desire to fly is an idea handed down to us by our ancestors who, in their grueling travels across trackless lands in prehistoric times, looked enviously on the birds soaring freely through space, at full speed, above all obstacles, on the infinite highway of the air."

– Wilbur Wright

Congressman Welcomed at Aventure Headquarters

Aventure hosted Georgia Congressman Lynn Westmoreland on June 13 at the company's Atlanta headquarters. He was briefed on the company's recent and planned future developments and was thanked for his efforts on the behalf of the company.

"The Congressman was delighted to know we are planning to recruit new staff due to our growing business," stated Melissa Coleman-Grina, Aventure's Senior Director. "We also requested his guidance with a federal contract recently awarded to a Virginia firm worth $92M to support USAF aircraft based in Robins AFB in GA," she added.

Congressman Westmoreland stated, "The company's mission to be the best in the industry is clearly shown by the staff morale, the well run organization, and the excellent hospitality all around."

The Congressman has served as the U.S. Representative for Georgia's 3rd congressional district since 2007, having previously represented the 8th district from 2005 to 2007. He is a member of the House Financial Services Committee and House Permanent Select Committee, and has experience starting and running his own business, L.A.W. Builders.

Aventure Exhibits with U.S. State of Georgia at Farnborough

Company executives returned from the United Kingdom last month declaring the Farnborough Airshow a big success for Aventure.

"Our participation this year was unique," commented Walid Zaatarah, Managing Director for the MENA region. "As part of the Georgia Department of Economic Development team, our products and services were promoted under the auspices of the State of Georgia within the USA Pavilion Hall," added Mr. Zaatarah.

"We left the show with solid opportunities and are currently negotiating distributorship rights from OEM companies for the United Kingdom and other European markets," stated Amyr Qureshi, Aventure's Senior Vice President.

Aventure President Speaks at Aerospace Investment Conference

Aventure President Zaheer Faruqi was a panelist at the Aerospace Investment Conference held May 15 at the JW Marriott in Miami, Florida.

Mr. Faruqi spoke on the panel "Investing in Aerospace OEM suppliers and Aftermarket specialists" to investors and representatives of major financial institutions, hedge funds management firms, pension funds, leasing companies, and aircraft manufacturers.

"Investors can achieve significant returns in the commercial airline parts business, and can begin to see a healthy return on their investment within 6 to 24 months, depending upon the investment value, condition of parts and aircraft applicability," stated Mr. Faruqi.

Mr. Faruqi scheduled meetings with participants to discuss such investments in more detail. For further information, please contact Mr. Faruqi at zaheer@aventureaviation.com.
